

Special Sale of Cotton Fabrics

From a value-giving standpoint, this is one of the most important sales we have announced this season. Fabrics of superior quality radically reduced in price, so as to effect quick selling in connection with our merchandising plans. See them at once, while selections are best.

25c New Cloth 17c

This fabric is especially desirable for late summer and fall wear, to be had in all the best shades in plain colors, also white background with colored stripes.

15c Mercerized Tissue 11c

Thirty inches wide, in the newest patterns of the season, such as Stripes, Floral Designs, and Tinted Effects. Choice now, 11c per yard.

Colored Voiles Reduced

All this season's newest Novelties are included in this sale, and since we are to have a great deal of hot weather during the next two months, women with forethought will purchase and save by so doing.

White Goods 1-2 Price

In this lot are materials suitable for Waists, Skirts, etc. If interested in White Goods, these are a big bargain.

25c to 38c Colored Wash Goods 15c

In this lot are Piques, Poplins, Gabardines, etc., in plain colors, especially desirable for children's school clothes. Look them over.

16c Galateas 12 1-2c Yd.

All the patterns we have left in Galatea Cloth to go at this price. You know the goods and their wearing qualities. Make your selection early.

The Homer Fitts Company

BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 1916.

The Weather

Fair to-night and Tuesday; warmer Tuesday; moderate to fresh northwest winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's special millinery values. William Stacy and E. R. Tarbox were among the Barre visitors in Burlington through the week-end.

Manager Kenneth McRae of the Union Dry Goods store left the city last evening on a business trip to New York.

B. W. Goodfellow of Spaulding street left last night for Boston, where he is to remain for a few days' business visit.

Mrs. Grace Hutchinson of Boston has arrived in the city and will visit Miss Emma Whitney of Elm street for a few days.

Mrs. Kate McKane of Elm street left yesterday for Graniteville, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. F. Dobson, for a few days.

Mrs. Minnie Sanders returned to 19 Orange street this morning after visiting friends in Claremont, N. H., for a few days.

Misses Mamie Nelson and Madeline Williams returned from Burlington last night after visiting friends there over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haddican of Pearl street returned to the city this morning, after passing a few days with friends in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fagerson of Windsor are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fagerson's mother, Mrs. John Shores of South Barre.

Mrs. Maria Watt commenced a vacation of two weeks from the coat and suit department of the A. P. Abbott Co. store this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sector, Jr., of Merchant street returned to the city Saturday from an outing of several days at Highgate Springs.

Miss Livia Lamperti left yesterday for South Ryegate, where she will visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Abbiati, for a few days.

Barre and East Barre Red Men are planning to send large delegations to the capital Friday for the opening of the state Red Men's convention.

Miss Margaret Doherty of Northfield, a teacher in the city schools, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few days, left this morning for Wells River.

Miss Margaret Lamperti resumed her duties in the H. J. Smith market this morning after spending the past week of her vacation with friends in Middlesex.

Frank H. Tupper of Burlington returned to his home last night after spending the week-end at the home of his father, George H. Tupper of South Main street.

Miss Jennie Ricciarelli returned to her home on Berlin street this morning after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martelle of Williamstown for a few days.

Miss Mildred Clark commenced a vacation of three weeks from the A. P. Abbott Co. store this morning and will visit during her vacation friends and relatives in St. Johnsbury and Northfield.

William Melvin and Harry Forsythe of Morrisville were in the city Saturday to participate in the Glen Gordon games at Caledonia park. Both men were in winning combinations in the soccer matches.

Mr. and Mrs. George Patnode of Essex Junction and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, who were called here by the death of Miss Helen White of Third street, returned Saturday afternoon to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Annas returned to their home on Church street last night after spending a week on an automobile tour through Watford, Harrison and Portland, Me., where they visited friends.

A party of five consisting of John Rogers, Forrest Batchelder, Norman Gordon, Lee Maiden and Allen Johnston returned to their homes in this city last night after spending a week camped at Joe's pond.

Henry A. Tupper, who is visiting friends and relatives through the New England states during the month of August, visited at the home of his father, George H. Tupper of South Main street. Mr. Tupper expects to return to his home in Springfield, Ill., sometime during the latter part of this month.

Miss Margaret Chalmers returned to her home on upper Washington street last night after spending a two weeks' vacation from the F. H. Rogers & Co. store visiting friends in Lyndonville, and her aunt, Mrs. G. H. Pillsbury of Groton. Miss Chalmers resumed her duties as bookkeeper at the Rogers store this morning.

Quiet prevailed at police headquarters through the week-end, there being only one name registered on the official blotter to-day. William S. Smith of Lisbon, N. H., when arraigned before Acting Magistrate A. A. Sargent, acknowledged a first offense and paid the minimum fine with costs of $6.35 attached.

Correspondence received here yesterday from Angelo Diversi, who was formerly engaged in the fruit business here, states that his hotel in Brooklyn, N. Y., was destroyed by fire Friday night. With the hotel, a bowling alley and billiard academy operated by Mr. Diversi, went up in flames. The proprietor reports that the property was well covered by insurance and that he does not propose to rebuild.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

TEENAGE TO RENT—At 102 River street. A. Wilson. 1235*

TO RENT—Downstairs tenement; 5 rooms; modern conveniences. 3 Currier street. 1235*

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

ESTATE OF MARTHA CAMPBELL. The undersigned, having been appointed by the honorable probate court for the district of Washington, COMMISSIONERS, to receive, examine, and adjust the claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Martha Campbell, late of the city of Barre, in said district, deceased, and all claims exhibited in effect hereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid, at the store of the Tilden Shoe Co. in the city of Barre, on the 14th day of September, from 9 o'clock a. m. until 3 o'clock p. m., on each of said days, and that six months from the 14th day of August, A. D. 1916, is the time limited by said court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated at the city of Barre, this 14th day of August, A. D. 1916.

ARTHUR C. TILDEN, JOHN T. AVERILL, Commissioners.

AUGUST 14-25

JAMES WHITE

Blacksmith and Horseshoer

20 SUMMER STREET (Formerly Minard Shop) BARRE, VT.

I have rented the shop from August 1, and all bills from that date to be paid by and to the shop, open from 7 to 5 daily. I shall try to satisfy all customers.

Union Dry Goods Company

Every Economical Woman Should Visit This Store To-day and Share in the Extraordinary Values

EVERYTHING IN SUMMER MERCHANDISE must be sold at once, as new fall goods are now arriving daily, and we must have room.

ALL SUMMER DRESSES FOR QUICK CLEARANCE AS FOLLOWS:

SUMMER DRESSES, regular values $1.00 to $1.25, now	79c
SUMMER DRESSES, regular values $1.50, now	$1.17
SUMMER DRESSES, regular values $2.00 to $2.25, now	1.39
SUMMER DRESSES, regular values $5.98 to $7.98, now	3.95
MIDDY BLOUSES, regularly sold at 50c, now	39c
MIDDY BLOUSES, regularly sold at $1.00, now	79c
SLIK WAISTS, regularly sold at $3.50, now	$2.69

Sale of Ladies' all Wool Dress Skirts, at $3.98

Ladies' Fine All Wool Serge and Poplin Skirts, the season's very best styles, in Navy Blue and Black. Regularly sold up to $5.98, choice $3.98

MONDAY EVENING SPECIAL, 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK

A Sale of Children's Dresses, at 65c

You must come to this sale to-night in order to appreciate this bargain. These Dresses are made of the best grade of Gingham, etc., and just the thing for school wear. Sizes from 6 to 14 years and our regular $1.00 sellers. On sale this evening, choice at 65c

Store closes 8 o'clock. (Shop early.)

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

191 North Main Street

Telephone 599-M

MONTPELIER

Robert Kelleher, who is employed in a Woodsville, N. H., bank, is visiting in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Kelleher, having been called here by the death of his uncle, James H. Kelleher.

Mrs. J. A. DeLoer and daughter, Ethel Field, left this morning for Albany, N. Y., where the former will make a several weeks' visit.

In probate court to-day George Murray of Barre City was appointed guardian of Harold Morrison, a minor of that city.

W. A. Dutton of the public service commission was a visitor in the city to-day, making the trip from Hardwick by automobile.

Mrs. C. P. Pitkin and Miss Jennie Devine of Main street have gone to Queen City park, near Burlington, to spend a week or 10 days.

Miss Lillian Gould of 209 Main street leaves to-morrow for Easton, Pa., where she has secured a position as teacher in the public schools. She was graduated recently from Montpelier high school.

Miss Gould will be accompanied to Easton by her sister, Mrs. Harry Ziev, who has been visiting in the city for several weeks.

John W. Durkee, former chief of police, who is now located at Fair Haven, left to-day for that town, having been in the city to attend the funeral of James H. Kelleher.

Mrs. Ernest A. Galaise and little daughter, Evangeline, left this forenoon for Bennington, where they will make a month's visit with her mother.

Lloyd Perry, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the Colburn & Fallon market, and Clinton Childs of Elm street left to-day for Highgate Springs to spend a week.

Miss Lizzie Finn returned this forenoon to her home in St. Albans, after being in the city for a few days.

W. N. Theriault, referee in bankruptcy, and Charles Parker have gone to Boston on a brief business trip.

Patrick Brohan of Rutland, former manager of the Grand Union Tea Co. store in this city, returned to his home to-day after a brief visit.

Ernest Girard of Chicago arrived in the city last evening for an extended visit with his grandmother, Mrs. John Girard, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gauvreau left yesterday on an automobile trip of three weeks through northern Vermont and Maine, and will make a stay at the Weirs, N. H., before returning.

Richard H. Ballard of Franklin, N. J., is visiting in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ballard of the River side.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Ball and son of Arlington, Mass., are visiting in the city with Mrs. Ball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cashen of North Franklin street.

In spite of the threatening weather a large number of local persons took the excursion trip to Plattsburg, N. Y., yesterday, returning to Montpelier late in the evening. They reported a rough trip on Lake Champlain.

Ravens Myrick resumed his duties in the office of the secretary of state to-day after a two weeks' vacation spent at his camp at Groton pond.

H. C. Jones and family of Ridge street left this forenoon for Burlington and vicinity to spend a week or ten days.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Big Blue Ribbon.—adv. Mrs. Charlotte Ramella resumed her duties in the Union Dry Goods store this morning, after a vacation of one week.

Byron Smith rejoined the Nellie Gill Players in Northfield this afternoon, after passing a few days at the home of his mother in Maple Grove.

John Sector of Division street returned to the city last evening from Lake Umbagog, where he has been passing several days with school friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martell of Central Falls, R. I., are spending a two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Martell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tatriault of Williamstown.

Cards were received in Barre this morning announcing the wedding of Miss Margaret Williams Milne, daughter of Mrs. John E. Milne of Warren street, to Joseph Henry Gilbert of Boston.

The ceremony took place Monday, Aug. 7. The bride resided in Barre until a few years ago and has a wide circle of friends in this vicinity. Mr. Gilbert is employed as a manager for the Edison Electric Co. in Boston. The couple will make their home in Boston.

Because of the cooling weather, the usual union service in the park Sunday afternoon was transferred to the Hedding Methodist church, where the pastor, Rev. B. G. Lipsky, preached the sermon, music being furnished by a union choir. Union services were held in the Congregational church in the forenoon. Rev. N. C. Edwall preached in the First Baptist church and Rev. Dr. J. F. Flinn had charge of services in the Graniteville Presbyterian church.

SOUTH ROYALTON.

Don't forget that every person in this town is personally invited to South Royalton Thursday evening, August 17, the occasion being the Barre Board of Trade get-together or better acquaintance meeting. The Barre people are to be there 200 strong and are to give a free evening entertainment; music by Carroll's orchestra of Barre; the Barre band will give an open-air concert; 150 pictures of Barre and her industry will be thrown on the screen; and suitable provision has been made for an open-air dance from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, in which every one is invited to participate.

WEBSTERVILLE.

The ladies' aid of the Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. William Edwards.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Parasols half price at Abbott's. Cash paid for old gold and silver. F. E. Burr.

Paul Leavitt commenced a vacation of two weeks from the postoffice this morning.

Among the business visitors in the city this morning from Brookfield was F. P. Lamson.

Mrs. Mary Franz of 11 George street underwent an operation at the City hospital this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jamieson of Montreal, P. Q., visited friends in the city through the week-end.

A son was born this morning at the City hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Maple Grove street.

Harry Reid returned to his home in Boston to-day, after spending several days in Barre on a business trip.

Charles R. Cummings of White River Junction, publisher of The Vermonter, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Harriet Gillet returned to her home this morning, after visiting friends on Brook street for the past two weeks.

Alphonse Hutchinson of Plainfield is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Etta Harvey of Sixth street, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davis returned from Queen City park Saturday night after spending a few days camped on the shores of the lake.

Mrs. Jane Carson and son, James Carson, who is recuperating from an attack of blood poisoning, went to Woodbury pond for an outing to-day.

Dean Bassett commenced his annual vacation of two weeks from rural route 3 this morning. James Johnston of Highland avenue is supplying during Mr. Bassett's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith returned to their home in Quincy, Mass., this morning after visiting friends and relatives on Brook street for a few days.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a special business meeting with Mrs. Waterman, 21 Camp street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Elsie Pease, state secretary, will be present. All members try and attend.

Francis J. Ahern of Eastern avenue, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the New England Granite Tool works on Blackwell street, left this morning with a party of friends for St. Albans Bay.

John Corcoran returned to his home on Short street last night after visiting friends camped at Joe's pond during the past week. Mr. Corcoran resumed his duties at the postoffice this morning.

Clarence Carr returned from Chicago, Ill., last night, where he has been attending the national convention of rural carriers, which was held from Aug. 9 to 11. Mr. Carr returned to route 2 this morning.

Miss Nena Bottinelli returned from New London and Groton, Conn., this morning, where she has been visiting friends during the past week while on her vacation from the A. P. Abbott Co. store. Miss Bottinelli resumed her duties as clerk this morning.

Among the guests registered at Hotel Barre through the week-end were the following: Mrs. H. Payne, Miss Elizabeth Payne and Miss Mary Payne of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Buell, Robert Willis, Miss Margaret Willis and chauffeur of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Gay of Cavendish, N. J. Kirk of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Witters and Mrs. Demarest of Burlington, Mrs. H. E. Moore, Miss Weeks, Harold H. Carr, Ned Carr and Mrs. H. H. Carr of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gates, Miss Laurette Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gates of Cambridge, P. F. Howley, P. H. Lyons, Dr. J. J. Hanrahan, Thomas Carroll, D. G. Quebec, B. McGee and Oscar Bergstrom of Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Merrill, F. E. Blake and Ned Blake of Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jamieson of Montreal, L. A. A. Morrison of Lowell, Max Howland of Alston, Mass., and H. Howland of Boston, C. N. Jeffords, Prof. G. E. Jeffords, Charles Jeffords and Mrs. Alice Jeffords of Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Moriarty of Northfield, Charles R. Cummings of White River Junction, S. G. Secombe and Elias Secombe of Ansonia, Conn., F. S. Dow of Stowe and F. E. Savage of Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. W. Crosby of Arlington, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Shaw, Mrs. W. Crosby and William Wyman Crosby, Jr., of Arlington, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Leeds of White River Junction, W. W. Mack, F. Gray and F. H. Stove of Hardwick, Mrs. T. Lafontaine of Montreal, Rev. G. P. Fortier of St. Albans, and Mrs. Anna M. Hall of Providence, R. I.

WAITSFIELD

Smith—Joslyn.

Waitfield, Aug. 14.—A quiet home wedding occurred Saturday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Frank Smith, when his eldest daughter, Dora M. Smith, was united in marriage to William R. Freeman of Plainfield. Rev. W. A. Remels, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated, the single ring, Episcopal service being used. The bride was attired in white crepe de chine and was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Florence Orr of Vershire, as matron of honor. The groom was attended by Don Orr. After a short wedding trip in Massachusetts, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman will make their home for the present with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith. Those attending from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Don Orr of Vershire, the groom's mother, Mrs. Freeman of Plainfield, and Mr. Fuller of Florida.

Improved Telephone System.

Telephone service along the Mad river valley is to be improved materially, extensive wiring operations being carried on under the direction of Superintendent H. H. Hodgdon and the Barre construction gang of the Vermont Telephone & Telegraph company. From the trunk line at Middlesex, the linemen are stringing a new 10-B iron wire to Waitsfield, restoring poles damaged by the spring floods and improving the supports when needed. The gang is now working in Moretown and perhaps a month will elapse before the terminus is reached. It is expected that a new thorough wire will remove the noisy condition that obtained when conversation was held over the wires.

Mrs. Monroe Joslyn fell Sunday afternoon while walking in the yard at George Hastings', where she has been staying, and broke one of the bones in her knee. Dr. W. J. Howard carried her to Heaton hospital to have an X-ray picture taken. Mrs. Joslyn has had a bad knee for years, and the sympathy of the community is extended to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Baird of Waterbury spent the week-end in town.

Doris Moriarty is home from Waterbury for a month's vacation.

Sheridan Boyce has been on the R. F. D. route for the past few days, substituting for Levi Boyce.

The Rebekahs gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mill and Marion Mill after the regular business meeting Saturday night. The Mills are to move to Randolph this week. Saturday night was children's night with the Rebekahs, and a good number were present, participating in a program of music and reading. Refreshments were served in the diningroom.

Union prayer meeting in the M. E. church Thursday evening at 7:30.

Messrs. John, D. R., and B. D. Bisbee went Monday to Groton for a camping expedition.

Mrs. George Pierce returned Friday from a several weeks' stay with relatives in Canada.

Orrin H. Joslyn returned Saturday from a visit with his sisters at Hanover, N. H., and Middlebury.

Dr. Harry Trask, wife and children came Saturday to C. H. Newcomb's.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Scribner of Montpelier were in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kingsbury and Harold Walls of Montpelier were in town Saturday.

The high school building has been moved around three-quarters of the way to its new position.

Peck Brothers of Montpelier have completed rebuilding the chimney of the Congregational church.

Mrs. A. E. Farr and children, Ruth and Everett, returned Wednesday night from several weeks' stay in Newburyport.

Former Principal Franklin G. Williams returned Saturday to his home in Bridport.

Mrs. L. J. Colebrook and son, Leslie, are spending a few weeks in New Haven.

Miss Gertrude Bisbee spent Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Harrison Backus, in Duxbury.

BETHEL.

Don't forget that every person in this town is personally invited to South Royalton Thursday evening, August 17, the occasion being the Barre Board of Trade get-together or better acquaintance meeting. The Barre people are to be there 200 strong and are to give a free evening entertainment; music by Carroll's orchestra of Barre; the Barre band will give an open-air concert; 150 pictures of

Special Reductions

Children's Wash Suits

$2.00 SUITS	$1.60
$1.50 SUITS	1.20
$1.25 SUITS	1.00
$1.00 SUITS	.80
75c SUITS	.60
50c SUITS	.40

STRAW HATS AT HALF PRICE

THE BIG, BUSY UNION STORE

Union Clothing Co.

Opposite Depot Square Phone 599-M

Barre and her industry will be thrown on the screen; and suitable provision has been made for an open-air dance from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, in which every one is invited to participate.

TUNBRIDGE.

Don't forget that every person in this town is personally invited to South Royalton Thursday evening, August 17, the occasion being the Barre Board of Trade get-together or better acquaintance meeting. The Barre people are to be there 200 strong and are to give a free evening entertainment; music by Carroll's orchestra of Barre; the Barre band will give an open-air concert; 150 pictures of Barre and her industry will be thrown on the screen; and suitable provision has been made for an open-air dance from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, in which every one is invited to participate.

One Dollar Off

Saturday and Monday we will give one dollar off from the original retail price of any Oxford or Pump which sells for $3.50 or more.

Saturday	$3.50 values for $2.50
and Monday	$4.00 values for $3.00
	$4.50 values for $3.50
	$5.00 values for $4.00

We have a good stock of sizes yet in Tan Pumps and Oxfords for women at one-half price.

PEOPLES SHOE STORE

C. S. ANDREWS, Proprietor